

3 LITTLE WORDS

G ilroy. G arlic. Festival!

It's what Gilroy DOES....it's who we ARE...it's how our community CELEBRATES! Whether you attended one or all of the three days, we were all caught up in the spirit of this annual July celebration. Here at the Gilroy Foundation, we were busy on a few other fronts, too!

BUT FIRST, LET'S TALK GILROY GARLIC FESTIVAL'S GILROY FOUNDATION WINE BOOTH!

According to Guinness Book of World Records, it's official, __ Gilroy Garlic Festival was recognized as world record holder for "largest attendance at a garlic festival." And Gilroy Foundation's Wine Booth was a stop off place for many friends, old and new. Event Coordinator Yesenia Gonzalez coordinated over 50 volunteers to help set up, serve and clean up from Thursday through Monday of Garlic Festival weekend. THANK Y OU to ALL! Without our volunteers, Gilroy Foundation's Wine Booth is not possible.

Food Network's Giada DeLaurentiis was a special guest emcee of the Garlic Showdown and other Sunday events. And two of our own Ambassadors had their "moment in the sun": Margene Peterson won a local contest that brought her and her daughter Melissa to center stage with Giada. And Chef Carlos Pineda, of Kneaded and Rebekah's Culinary Academy, won the Garlic Showdown on the Cook Off Stage. And he announced on stage that his $3,000 prize would be donated back to the Gilroy Foundation's Jay Minzer and Peter Ciccarella Memorial Fund that benefits Rebekah's Culinary Academy--a win-win! What a fabulous weekend!
